

Instructions to exercise options in second phase of Counseling

1. All candidates (whether opted / reported or not in Phase I) are eligible to participate and give options for change of colleges in Phase II of counseling.
2. Candidates must be very careful while selecting colleges in Phase II of counseling because once if a candidate gives options for other colleges in Phase II and gets the seat allotted in the opted college in Phase II, the seat allotted/ reported in Phase I will automatically gets cancelled.
3. If the college fees of the seat allotted in Phase II is more than the college fees of the Phase I, candidate has to pay the difference amount or if college fee of Phase II is less, the balance will be refunded to the candidate.
